

As opposed to filing a complaint against the broadcast of the super bowl half-time incident, i would like to complain that fcc regulations are too restricting when it comes to media related content. the more freedom that is givin, the better life will be for everyone.